Influence on the stock speculation market again and the topic of principal interest.

The retention of the 5 per cent bank of England rate was accepted with satisfaction, but the reeling of certainty that this course would be followed had allowed action to anticipate it. The influence on prices of stocks, therefore, was short lived.

The special heaviness of Union Pacific in the day's market was partly due to disappointment over the retention of the present dividend rate in the Southern Pacific distribution.

The two Hill stocks were under special pressure as well with the question suggested whether the settlement of a large estate was involved in the movement.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales.

Sity of Virginia. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] [CHARLOTTESVILLE. VA., November 11.—Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president concerning to the controlling of the series on the general subject of "Collectivism and Individualism in a Domocracy." His special theme was "Collectivism and Individualism in Educational and Social Life." His main proposition was that the motives operative in human life are the desire for a career, and that these motives ought to be the controlling motives in the schools. The appeal should be to the child's love of approbation and desire to propare for life, not to fear. All May Aspire to Rise. With reference to social life, Dr. MILLER & CO.
